

Learning Something New Every Day

WHEN YOU ENTER THE DOOR at Bon Secours Spiritual Center, one of the friendly faces that greet you belongs to Lauren Franz, guest services assistant. Lauren, a student at Carroll Community College, first began working part-time at the Center as a high school student. She has been full time for more than one year.

ing, an area she is considering as her college major. “I like math. It’s very straightforward,” she says. Both areas keep her mind fully engaged. “I come in and learn something new every day,” she says. Rose (Kurtz, guest services manager) and Kathleen (Purtell, accounting manager) are always giving me opportunities to learn more.”

“It definitely feels different to work here,” says Lauren, whose previously job experiences were in a pharmacy and a hair salon. “It has been a big learning experience, with lots of unexpected twists and turns. In Guest Services, you have to learn to think one step ahead of everyone else.”

Recently Lauren began splitting her time between Guest Services and Account-

One surprise for Lauren has been finding how strongly many guests feel about Bon Secours Spiritual Center. “I didn’t realize how much the Center means to them,” she says. “It’s interesting how important the time they spend here is to them.” ♡

Registration Policy

Registration is required for all retreats and workshops. Some programs have limited spaces, and reservations will not be accepted once all spaces are filled.

Registration forms can be printed out or sent electronically from our website (www.BonSecoursSpiritualCenter.org/Departments/Registration.html).

Registrations are accepted:

- by mail, to 1525 Marriottsville Road, Marriottsville, MD 21104
- by fax, to 410.442.8219
- online, from the web address above, or
- by telephone, at 410.442.1320.

Payments are accepted by check or credit card (Visa or MasterCard).

Registration is complete when we have received a completed form and payment. Registrations within two weeks of a program’s start date must be made by telephone, fax or online and paid in full by credit card. If a minimum number of participants have not registered for a program by the deadline, BSSC may cancel the program, and a full refund will be issued to all registrants. ♡
